At Christmas time, 4th class worked very hard and created some wonderful crafts for their families and friends. They used a plastic fork and green paint to create the Christmas tree. They carefully selected materials to decorate the tree. An acorn was used to make 'Rudolph'. An enjoyable lesson was had by all!

As part of 'Maths Week' and 'Seachtain na Gaeilge', 4th class got the opportunity to collaborate with Junior and Senior Infants. 4th class demonstrated excellent leadership and organisational skills as they taught the infant classes Maths and Gaeilge through P.E. The infants illustrated tremendous listening skills and co-operated extremely well during each activity. Well done to all classes involved!
